Many thanks to all our wonderful volunteers who have given the gift of their time!

And thank you, also, to the individuals and businesses who so generously donated items for our fundraising auction.

Special Thanks To ...

The Victorian Society of Syracuse. The 29-year-old organization ended their final meeting with a visit to the Gage Home on Sept. 15. That day, they made a $1,000 donation — the money remaining in their treasury — as a gift toward the Gage Foundation's upcoming capital campaign for rehabilitation funding.

Years from now when the grandchildren of the Victorian Society members come to visit the Gage

Home with their children, they will point to the plaque at the entrance where all the $1,000-and-over donors will be listed and say, "my grandmother (or grandfather) was part of that group."

Tom Thomas for generously hosting our annual fundraising auction for the sixth year.

Jill Dickey and David Kellogg for their dedicated and time-consuming work as auction co-chairs for the past two years.

Joanne Silverstein for her superb leadership as chair of the Local Advisory Committee over the past several years. Joanne continues on as a member of the committee.

LIBERTY BRIGADE

Greetings, Friends!

As board members of the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation, we invite you to join us. Each one of us has pledged a meaningful gift monthly to the Foundation to ensure its success.

We are working with the schools, Girl Scouts, Girls Inc., and other youth organizations to share our story of Conscience in Community. It is a richly textured story of courage, conscience and community that isn't getting told anywhere else.

This is a place of transformation, of healing, where young people from the inner city, the Onondaga Nation, and the affluent community of Fayetteville can come together to rekindle the fire of common interest that brought these communities together in the Syracuse area during Gage's time. It is a unique place where we share the history of social justice and prepare the future keepers of democracy.

Please join us as a member of the Liberty Brigade as we move the memory of Gage's work forward.

Sincerely,

Jack Manno, Board President
